“ Mr. Smith was truly a person who loved God, his family and not just his friends but anyone he would meet and, of course, Alabama. Although he will live on forever in our hearts, we will miss him, his warm smile and his sincere interest in others. He set a wonderful example for us all and his wish would be that we will live our lives for Christ so that we may all be together again one day.##imported-begin##Laddie & Delores Toney##imported-end##

“ Mr. Frank will always be held dear in our hearts as we cherish the life that he lived for Christ. The support he offered to his brothers and sisters in his church family was constant and true. His lessons will continue to live through the lives of his family. What a beautiful life and legacy he leaves for us all!##imported-begin##Mike, Jo and Kevin Lillis##imported-end##

“ One thing I remember and appreciate about Mr. Frank is that, when my sister was alive, he went out of his way to say something kind and complimentary to her whenever he saw her at worship services. She was really fond of him, and knowing how much he loved Alabama, she called him "Mr. Bama." I think I will always remember him that way.##imported-begin##Dianne Giddens##imported-end##

“ My love for my Uncle Frank will last as long as my memory of him. He had a way of making the joys of life contagious and anyone who knew him will never forget his charm and warmth. Uncle Frank’s family meant everything to him and he did everything in his power to make sure we would all meet again and spend eternal life together. I will always cherish his phone calls to “make sure I was going to church” and his words of encouragement. His calls would always end in tears as he would talk about his brother and my daddy, George Wyman Smith. He once told me the saddest part of being the last child still living is that he had no one to share his childhood memories with. Uncle Frank was a good Christian man and a great example to all.

As Truman so perfectly put it ...
My Uncle Frank is currently in Paradise visiting with his brothers and sisters and their beloved "Mama".##imported-begin##Brenda Smith Braswell##imported-end##

“ Mr. Frank was the first to truly welcome us to the the church when it was on Richmond Hill Road. He seemed to welcome everyone with his warm smile. When my children were younger, the first person they would look for when we got to church was Mr. Frank--to give him a hug! He always welcomed them with open arms. He will truly be missed by all who knew him.##imported-begin##Brian and Lisa Underwood##imported-end##

“Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain: In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low; Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.”

“ I had the pleasure of hunting one day with Mr. Frank and my grandfather, Ellis Carrol. We had a great time. I also remember watching a few Alabama football games with Mr. Frank. Mr. Frank and I shared another thing in common, we both had an affection for Redman. I brought him some one time and you would have thought I had given him gold. I can still see the big grin on his face. I loved Mr. Frank very much and miss him. He was a wonderful Christian example.

Love,

“ Frank Smith, aka Alabama, and I have been best friends since I was in middle school. We always had plenty to talk about after church because we both loved football----Frank just pulled for the wrong team, but he always said if we all pulled for the same team it would be no fun. I guess he was correct? We had so many wonderful times on those football trips to Legion Field and behind the Georgia Hedges. We were there see THE BEAR win number 315 together. I was proud to become part of his family when I married his daughter Deborah, 41 years ago, in 1967. Our two sons Trey and Todd believed PaPa Smith owned the M&M candy factory and printed his own one dollar bills. He was a great father, father-in-law, grand father and great grand father. We will all miss his wonderful smile, generous spirit and inspiring Christian example. I can not wait to see that high Alabama kick again behind those pearly gates. We will always love you and miss you very much but have comforting pleasure in knowing you have received your reward from God --- for a job well done on this earth. Gone to a better place, yes but never forgotten.. until we meet again ---your rotten son-in-law....Sonny###imported-begin##Arthur (Sonny) J. Gay, Jr.--Poor property son-in-law###imported-end##

“ We all have so many wonderful memories of my Daddy, Frank Edwin Smith.....but as the eldest daughter, I may have the most. I could write pages but will record one special memory that this Christian father said to me every night before I went to bed...."Good night, sweet dreams, say your prayers, God bless you and I love you." and now I pray the same for you Daddy as you rest peacefully in Paradise and await the reward of Heaven that you worked toward all of your life.###imported-begin##Deborah Smith Gay (First born daughter)###imported-end##

“ I am sorry to have just learned of Frank's passing. I so loved Frank Smith. I spent several wonderful days visiting with him on Bama Avenue in his Bama room talking about, of course, Bama. As a misplaced Tide Fan in the middle of Bulldog country, Frank Smith held his own through great times and not so great times. While we were in Augusta, some of our dearest friends were the members of the Gay/Smith family. Our deepest sympathies to all of you. We love you all and miss seeing you. May God bless you with wonderful memories of a loving and caring man of God.##imported-begin##Mike and Lori Ermert##imported-end##

“ Although we are saddened over the passing of Mr. Frank, we also rejoice knowing he died in the Lord and served Him faithfully for many years. To us, he always demonstrated a tremendous example of how we should greet and extend a welcome to visitors at worship. He made them feel at home and never seemed to meet a stranger. His example was one from which we learned and will always remember.##imported-begin##Renata and Allen Boston##imported-end##

“ Deborah & Family,
I am so very sorry for your loss. I have very fond memories of a very generous man. Daddy used to always call Mr. Smith when he KNEW he was watching Alabama play...just to irritate him. :-) God bless...if God wasn't an Alabama fan before, bet he is now.
