

Frankie Johnson Sims

December 13, 1938 - May 29, 2023

Frankie's life is a story of success, love and faith that takes place in a span of 83 years. Born in Glasscock County, Georgia on Tuesday December 13, 1938 to Fleming Frank Johnson and Ruby Amerson Johnson of Gibson Georgia. Frankie was the second oldest of four children and the oldest daughter. She is preceded in death by her parents and brother, Bobby Johnson. She is survived by her two sisters, Faye Johnson Blankenship (Bob) and Carol Johnson Hett.

I don't think Frankie ever dreamed about success — I think she worked for it and success followed quickly. She began her career at Friedman's Jewelers in the warehouse, where her talent was recognized as well as her impeccable taste in selecting jewelry. Soon she became the "Gold Buyer" for Friedman's, where she would travel to New York, Las Vegas and Italy to purchase the latest trends in Gold Jewelry fashion throughout the 1980's and 1990's.

While she was building a successful career, she was also raising her two strong and independent daughters; Vickie Sims Kaney and Pam Sims Warnock (Billy). She was the Matriarch of the family and her family was her greatest love. Her grandchildren knew her as "ChooChoo" and their "ChooChoo" provided them with many adventures and memories. She was not the traditional grandmother in nature, but she was present in a big way! She is survived by her grandchildren, Brandon Warnock (Kara), Patrick Kaney

(Lauren), Brittney Warnock Stearns (Jeremey), Tyler Kaney; and six great grandchildren, Caraline Grace Brunson, Jackson Brunson, Kaylynn Stearns, Kyle Stearns, Boone Stearns, and Bryer Warnock.

Faith was an integral part of her life. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Belvedere, where she worshiped with lifelong friends. In the past ten years, she has struggled with Alzheimer's disease. Alzheimer's is a devastating and frightening disease. Her family is sure it was made a little easier through prayer and faith. On Monday, May 29, 2023 she went home to be with her lord & savior. Frankie exceeded expectations... she was dearly loved by her family & friends and faithful to the end.

A Celebration of Life Service will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Posey Funeral Chapel with Rev. John Meyer officiating. The family will receive friends at the funeral home immediately following the service. A private interment will be held at a later time.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's association, 106 SRP Drive, Evans, GA 30809

“ So very sorry for your loss. I just saw this today. I worked with Frankie at Friedman's Jewelers Home Office for many years. When I was a store manager she was the only go to for your gold. She was a wonderful person and always was ready to give a helping hand. She will be missed. Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers.
