“ Since we do not take the newspaper, I only today learned of Fred's death last month. He and Margaret were our square dancing friends from years ago. Our condolences to Margaret and the family in their loss. Fred was always smiling and very friendly.

“ Mr. Fred was the sweetest most patient man ever to enter Bankers First Data Services. He could and would fix any and every piece of our mainframe. Very fond memories of a very special man, including him fussing at me for not finding that small piece of a check in the sorter before placing that service call. The computers of today are running because Mr. Fred kept the ones of yesteryear going strong. He will be deeply missed. The picture is priceless, captures such a happy man.
Thinking of you Russell. Praying for peace and comfort for you and your family.

*Sincerely,
Cindy Barnes*
