“ Mike became part of our family about 12 years ago after my grandmother passed away. I believe he and my grandfather, Bill Widener, met while fishing along the Savannah River. They have each been such a huge blessing to the other. Over the years, they have gone on many fishing trips and watched too many westerns to count, but most importantly they became best friends. We are so thankful they found each other. Heaven has gained a sweet and caring soul who will be greatly missed.

*Love & prayers to his family and friends,
