“ So loved growing up at Matlock as a youth and young adult listening to Mr. George tell everyone that there is no better place to be on Sunday morning or Sunday evening than Matlock Baptist Church! So admired him for the reminder that church and church family are important! Now Mr. George you do have a better place to be....walking the streets of gold and singing in the heavenly choir! Prayers for the family that God's spirit will wrap you in his peace and love and help you through this time of grief!

“ George was special to all of our family. To see his smile, hear his voice and enjoy his company on the days we would visit Kenneth - it was refreshing to all of us. We have loved him for decades - and - his friendship over all these years was a true blessing. Our family sends love, thoughts and prayers to all the Brown family. Find comfort in all the wonderful memories you have in your hearts of him. Find that peace knowing he now walks with Jesus and is with family and friends in Heaven. He certainly is going to be missed so much on our visits to Kenneth. And, we are wrapping our arms and hugging you all tonight and always. God bless.
