“ Another of the Brookfield kids gone. Remembering this cold winter evening sliding parties on the big hill behind the barn and hot chocolate in the farmhouse after we were so cold we could hardly move.

“ George also has many cousins which I am one. George liked to keep the family together. He was named after our great grandfather George. The Knowles family history is long we were blessed to have known our great grandparents and all of our cousins growing up. He will be missed, and I am sorry that I didn't get to see him on his last trip to Vermont. Bless you
