“ *Wally,
Words can not express the impact you have on my daily life. Not a day goes by I don't say a "Wallyism" or talk about something you taught me.
You always invited me everywhere and to every event, my daughter and myself. Though there are many years between us I feel we are the closest of friends. As I started down a new path in life that include a husband and family our time became too few and far between but when we did talked it was as if no time had passed.
The greatest gift you shared was time is short and to make the most of it, we only live once!*

I love you dearly and look forward to sitting on the patio in heaven listening to all your stories once more.

XOXO

To my dear friend Christi and her family. So many good memories with this great guy. He had true charisma or should I say machismo! Your lives will never be the same again, but they're certainly better for having had this great man in your life, as is mine. I can hear his laughter now at me saying he had machismo, but he did. There was a something "je ne sai quois" about him that made everyone he met, a friend. Keep the good times at the forefront of your memory and the bad memories will eventually leave. You are in my thoughts today Wally Powell, you've left a great legacy. Sue - the English girl!

“Jerry, Please know our thoughts and prayers are with you. Our prayer is that God will give you the peace and strength you need in the days to come. Your Dad is in heaven, which is where we long to be one day. He has seen Jesus and he is healed. No more suffering, no more pain..

“ Wally, here goes! I will always remember your gift of laughter and kindness. This writer acknowledges your gift to make a soul welcome in your life. This writer remembers the kindness and caring of your family to extend an invitation to Christmas Eve and Christmas Dinner in 2012 when there was no place to go. Then this writer had the privilege and honor to host a New Years Eve dinner with you on the last day of 2012.

We were true friends and we both shared many drinks, laughs and oh so solving the, "Worlds Problems" together! You were the last person I saw in Augusta, in January of 2013, when I quickly left for Indiana.. Then you were the only person I really shared my concerns with life and cooking together in last July of 2013.

Wally, I told you this, I am a much more fulfilled and happy person for meeting you and your family. I am so glad, we talked and said our goodbyes a few weeks ago!

I think of you everyday and will for the rest of my life! My only comfort is that we will meet again on our souls journey...Goodbye my dear friend and rest till we meet again!!! Have a cocktail waiting on me my dear! Love always my dear friend...Kimberly
