Dear Aunt Geraldine, I will miss our precious fellowship and prayer times over the phone. Thank you, all the way from Montana. I will continue to pray for those dear kinfolk that are left behind. You taught me how to live by faith by your sweet example. Till we meet again on the other side. You always signed your cards....Jesus loves you and so do I

“ Mrs. Gilbert was the sweetest lady ever! She always treated all of us as one of her own. I know she is walking the streets of gold with her sweet husband and her beautiful daughter (and one of my best friends) Karen. What a reunion they are having! My prayers are with Shirley, Sandra and the rest of the family.
