“ My mother, Mary Jo York, sister, Gail York, father James York, husband Harry Deaton and I would like to send you our sympathy. We all were very fond of Trudy and will miss seeing her so very much at the War Home where my father James York is a patient. She was such a joy to see each time we were there and from the first time we went there she made us feel like family. We will all miss her very much. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.###imported-begin##Janice York-Deaton###imported-end##

“ So sorry for your loss. I'm in Michigan and not be able to attend the funeral. I am a neighbor of Pointe West. I have had many talks with Trudy as I walked my dog around the block. She was a lovely person. My heart and prayers go out to the family.
