“ Beech Island has lost another giant among men. Gilbert Mullis was a dynamic Christian man who impacted his community, church, friends, and family by his character and lifestyle. While we celebrate his entrance into God's kingdom, we are saddened by our loss. My prayers to his beautiful and gracious wife Jeanette, whom he treasured. My condolences to Felecia; he was so proud of his baby girl, and I know a piece of his heart was broken when his son Keith died. Gilbert Mullis was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather, father-in-law, brother, friend, and role model. He was so devoted to the Beech Island Fire Department, and his service has been appreciated through the years. We shall miss Gilbert R. Mullis, and our prayers are with his family.

“ My thoughts & prayers are with Mr. Mullis family. I knew him when I first came to Beech Island when he was good friends of my boss at that time (Mr, Grover Bussell). He was a great man who loved the Lord & just know that we shall see each other again. God Bless his wife & children & grandkids!!!
