“ To know the hurt of losing Ginger, without the time we should have spent together. Sometimes life ends before it's allowed to be fully lived. Often we know and live life afar due to the hurt others place in ignorance and false images. Your beauty in compassion was spoken of by Luther and Inez Jones who shared with me as often as they could. A true void in my life. Many blessing for a peace unknown on earth. lol Tonya

“ I did not know Ginger very well, but I do remember Cory because he played baseball wit my brother in high school. I remember always seeing the two walking down the halls of Silver Bluff together so happy and so in love. Heaven has gained a beautiful angel and she will greatly be missed. Like I said, I didn't know her very well, but I remember how friendly she was and how she always wore an inviting smile on her face. Cory, my prayers are with you and your son. “ To all of Ginger's family. My heart is heavy for you. I am so sorry for the loss of Ginger, as a wife, a mother, a daughter, a sister, a daughter-in-law, a friend and the list goes on. I am a better person in knowing Ginger. I had the pleasure of talking to Ginger, of all places, in TJ Maxx a couple of months ago. We must have been there for well over an hour. Time stood still and it was calm...no rushing...it was as if I was where I was suppose to be at that moment. Ginger shared her inner thoughts, fears, and joys. We cried, hugged, and laughed. She loved her family. Toby was her heart and Cory was her soul mate. She told me she felt that God had sent me to her that day. I felt so blessed to have had that time with her that day b/c I felt that God intended that moment for both of us. She will be with Melissa now with the accompaniment of other angels. God has just received another angel in heaven. My comfort has been Isaiah 40:31 that I read just before Melissa's passing. I knew God was in control. We don't always understand but God has bigger plans and as Lis said "we are just a small part of it." God will hold you in his hands and comfort you like no human can. I am here if I can be of any help. I am sorry I am unable to attend the funeral; it is still difficult. Our prayers are with you all. In Christ love
:))###imported-begin###Clifford and Tammy Guess

I was very saddened to read the news of Ginger today. She was my most outstanding student during the three years I taught at USCA, having her both in my statistics and physics classes. In fact I enjoyed you both in my physics class. I fondly recall the day when she brought her newly born son to that class later in the year - when she introduced me to him, she was beaming with pride.

Please accept my condolences for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ To All of Ginger's Family,

May you feel God precious love surrounding you during this difficult time.

Only He can help to fill the emptiness you feel from this beautiful soul making her her heavenly journey. Take some comfort in knowing that now for the first time she can breath freely & has no pain thanks to our blessed Savior.

I was one the nurses who had the pleasure of working with Ginger for the past 4 1/2 years. Ginger was not only my patient, we became friends. No matter how bad she felt she always had that wonderful smile & bubbly energy that amazed me. She was a truly a treasure to all who knew her.

Cory you were a wonderful husband & friend to Ginger. She loved you with all of her heart & soul, always remember the good times. Toby made her eyes sparkle every time we talked him. Ginger would beam with pride of her precious son. And for the rest of her loving family - Ginger loved each & everyone of you dearly.

“ I guess for those of us who grew up in Jackson, we are all family united by hearts and friendships. So many have prayed so hard for God's will to be done in Ginger's life. He knows best although it's hard for us to understand that now. Ginger was not only very bright, she was beautiful on the inside as well as on the outside. I wish she could know how many people's lives she touches by her strength of character. There will be many praying for strength for Cory to carry on and be strong for his son. He's grown into a great man and he has a lot of family and friends who love him and will be there for him. I love this poem below. It meant alot to me when I lost my Dad and I just wanted to share it with you.

*For those who suffer,
and those who cry this night,
give them repose, Lord;
a pause in their burdens.
Let there be minutes
where they experience peace, not of man
but of angels.
Love them, Lord,
when others cannot.
Hold them, Lord,
when we fail with human arms.
Hear their prayers and give them the ability to hear You back in whatever language they best understand.*

“ Dear Hall & Jones families, My past has crossed each one of you at one time or another. Growing up with the Harper girls. Steve, Kathy, Julie & Ginger as family members 25 yrs ago and have visited at times as a non family member but friends. Colton and Colby a friends for several year. All of you as a large extended family blessed my families lives. Our hearts are broken Ginger's passing but we know we will see her again at our Savior's feet with no more tears. There are so many love ones than able to open their arms to her just as there are those left behind to wrap our arms, hearts and prayers around all of you until we each meet with Jesus in heaven. It will be a happy reunion there but sad for those that have to wait until He calls each one of us home. May the Lord comfort and strengthen each one of you and each special need. Cory, & Toby a very special heartfelt prayer I didn't know you as well as the others and I'm really sorry for that. I'll never forget the Wizard of Oz as a family one Halloween.
