“ Gladys was my cousin, but more important, my best friend. She was like a sister to me.

There will never be a day when I won't think about her. She was so proud of her family. I am grateful to Tami for her loving care these last few years. Bubba and David too. I love all of you.

My deepest sympathy and all my love, Aunt Carol (Hallman, Beeler)

“ I remember Gladys fondly. I knew her for 50 years and she was always gracious and nice. In our youth, she and I double dated. My date, Henry, went on to become my husband. I did not see her often and we lost touch over the years, but I always considered her a friend.
