“ Bubba was truly one of a kind. Playing football in the softball field in Belvedere. Always hoping he was on our side. Growing to be run out of the Highlander, by Dave. To steering others to just shut there mouth to keep out of trouble. Always a friend and brother. If you are napping when I get up there and you hear " Harold Harper get up" you will know its me. Rest in peace my brother!

“ It would take days to tell all the stories. Some good and some bad. Bubba would get you through all of it. Thats the type of man he was. He would give you the shirt off his back and the last dollar in his pocket. I will never forget that big beautiful smile! Rest in peace my friend it is well deserved!

“ Bubba was a close friend of my family. When we moved into the neighborhood in 1973, Bubba was one of the first guys to welcome us . His infectious personal attitude made you take to him right off the bat. Bubba and his younger brother Billy became a regular at our house for many, many years. No one could tell a joke, play baseball, or do just about anything. To me, he was like my older son since I had 4 boys of my own. I will miss him tremendously and with the fondest memories.

“ I’m heartbroken knowing that you are gone, you were the best of the best. You had a quote for every occasion. I remember when I told you I was getting married you said “Just say no Deb, just say no”, we still laugh about that, it’s been over 23 years now. I have so much in my life that I’m thankful for, a friendship of over 30 years with you is one I cherish the most. A much loved friend, protector, bodyguard, voice of reason during chaos, and so much more. I will always love you..

“ I don't know if I was more impressed with his ability to quote the Bible, or rip a telephone book in half. Everyone who knew him has a story to tell, or 20 !
Rest in peace Bubba.
Your legacy will live on ♡
