“ Mr. Harry, was like an uncle to me, I remember the day I was going to run away I headed to his house because he always gave me powerade and mountain dew and when I was around Mr. Harry I felt protected. I will always remember the advises he gave me about everything, I do mean a lot of advise. I love you Mr. Harry and I will remember you always...

“ Harry was the type of man who touched everyone he came in contact with, his gentle heart, warm soul, generosity and kind nature made him memorable.

Harry came into my life at a time I most needed a friend. He provided a shoulder to cry on during my saddest times and lifted my spirits with laughter.

Harry became more than just a friend he was family to my son and I, sometimes more than my own flesh and blood. He was someone I was always able to count on.

One of the most memorable moments was when I first met Harry, he walked into my office and asked for an insurance quote, with a great big smile on his face, he noticed that I was looking for change in my wallet and asked me did I loose something, I responded with no and apologized for being rude, but I did mention to him that I was thirsty. Shortly after he left he returned with a pepsi, that is not my choice of soda, but to tell you the truth that was best tasting soda I ever had.

His action was one of consideration and thoughtfulness for a stranger. I did not know then the great importance this man would have in my life, But I will always be grateful that he came into my life, he is someone I will always remember as a kind and loving person.

No words can express the love my son (Keith) and I felt for Harry. Harry we will always miss you!!!!
