“ Sue, and others who helped plan Henri's funeral. It was a beautiful service and I know a lot of love, thought, and prayers went into it. Remember your mom will always be remembered by so many, for her kindness, love, and support. I don't know if you know it or not, but the last time I saw her was when she called me over, and helped me dig some flowers out of her yard to plant in mine. Your mother stayed in touch with me periodically through the years, and was always loving and thoughtful. As her health decreased, she didn't stay in touch as often, but knew I was always there. She was the greatest Nannie to Derek. I thank her for that. I'll always remember you, her, and the family.

“ *This isn't death, it's glory!
It isn't dark, it's light.
It isn't stumbling, groping,
Or even faith, it's sight!*

*This isn't grief, it's having
My last tear wiped away.
It's sunrise, it's the morning
Of my eternal day!*

*This isn't even praying,
It's speaking face to face.
It's listening, and it's glimpsing
The wonders of His Grace.
This is the end of pleading
For strength to bear my pain.
Not even pain's dark memory
Will ever live again.*

*How did I bear the earth life
Before I came up higher,
Before my soul was granted
It's every deep desire.*

*Before I knew this rapture
Of meeting face to face
That One who sought and saved me,
And kept me by His Grace!*

To Henri W. Wilson Family, Lee, and all the family, I was sorry to hear of the death of Henri. Even though we know now, she is in a better resting place. Henri was always full of so much love for everyone, her family, friends, and even some she just met on the street. She was a lovely spirited lady, and will be missed by so many. I hope the family will call on me if there is anything I can do. I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. My only regret is I didn't get to tell her good bye.

"We Loved with a love that was more than Love" Edgar Allen Poe
This is a time that all the family and friends need to stick together, supporting each other and always remembering the good times, to make us all smile, to make this difficult time a little easier. My Prayers are with all of you.

In Gods Love,
Dana
