“ Doug, Angie, Amy, Aaron and the entire Gurley family, our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time of great loss. I didn't know your dad, Doug, but have heard lots about him from the family. I know there are many memories to cherish...treasure them, no one can take them from you. Much love!

“ I have a lot of fond memories working with Henry Gurley and his family at his store on Gwinnett Street. I left there with many work experiences that have served me throughout my professional career. My condolences and sympathies are with the Gurley family in their time of sorrow. Sincerely; Bill Jackson

“ What a sweet, sweet man. His intelligence and compassion impacted me greatly at an early stage of my life. His expressions and the sound of his laugh continue to echo in my mind even though it's been years since I spent time with Mr. Henry. The beauty part of him is he trained his children to the best of his ability and those of us on the outside looking in can still see him through you. Mr. Henry handle difficult times as if he were teaching those of us who were watching--and we were. Because of Mr. Henry my life is soooo much better.

May God bless you all in this difficult time.
