“ Through the years, I have been a recipient of her cuttings from her beautiful flowers from her garden, her delicious holiday treats and gifts from her trips to Japan. I feel truly blessed to have known her and will miss her beyond words.

I am going to especially miss seeing her each week when B.R. would bring her with him. Her sweet gentle spirit and how she would smile when I would ask her if B.R. was being good to her.

I saw the true spirit of love as I watched B.R. take care of his beautiful bride and doing everything to make life comfortable for Sano (mom) this past year.

Our lives will feel the void that only she could fill but she left so many wonderful memories to all that that were blessed to have known her.
