

Horace Dean Hall

August 26, 1939 - May 4, 2026

North Augusta, SC – Private services will be held for Horace Dean Hall, 86, who entered into rest May 4, 2026.

Mr. Hall was born August 26, 1939, in Honea Path, SC. He served his country in the United States Army. Mr. Hall retired from The Jewel Tea company where he became affectionately known by his customers as “The Jewel Tea Man”. He was fiercely independent and loved to drive. In retirement, he would drive vehicles for local dealerships transporting them all over the southeast.

Survivors include his loving wife of 50 years, Kaye Hall; sons, Rodney Hall (Heyka), Troy Hall (Stephanie), Scott Hall (Pam) and Marc Hall (Angel); 11 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Mr. Hall had a lasting impact on his community, never met a stranger, and always offered a kind smile and a friendly hello. He was adored by many and deeply cherished by his wife, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. He lived a full life of spiritual faith and commitment to both God and family.

But blessed are those who trust in the Lord. Jeremiah 17:7

“ I loved my uncle Dean. He was always so kind to me. The last time we spoke was on my birthday last year and he wanted me to come visit. He will be missed and I know life without him won't be the same. Love you Kaye and cousins. Praying for peace for all of you.
