“Jan, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family today. I, too, lost my father on a Friday before Palm Sunday - many years ago, and it felt so odd to lose such a vibrant life in the middle of Spring. I didn't know your dad, but I feel like I did from all the stories I have heard about him. He sounds like a unique and precious human being. May light perpetual shine upon him, and may you envision him in the land of light and joy where he shall never die.

“ People always wonder what is in a name,
and to tell you the truth I wonder the same.
The name Hubert Lowder means something great,
and whenever your around him, your day he will make.
You ask how hes doing and it is always the same,
Oh, Im fair to midlands, he would always say.
I feel real fortunate to have met such a wonderful being,
and the title "man of the year" would give him great meaning.
A member of the navy protecting the high seas, where he cooked up something great and the crew he would please.
After that a team member driving coast to coast,
delivering goods and smiles, which he loved most.
Hubert Lowder is one person that puts a smile on your face,
and has made friends and joy from place to place.
I thank GOD this is my child's great grandfather, and will keep my memories of him close to the heart with no bother.
I just wish she could have had alot more time, getting to know how he captured the hearts of others and mine.
His wife Gracie, one of the people he loved so much,
she is definently someone that gave his heart a touch.
He had a wonderful life with her and their dog,
and every once in a while would break out the guitar for a song.
Thinking of Hubert Lowder I could go on and on,
I think that is why GOD decided to call him home.
He is eternally happy and will not hurt anymore, and has reunited with his loved ones who entered the Gates of Heaven before.
Here on Earth I know I will no longer see his face,
but look forward to giving him a hug when I get to that special place.
We visited with him on his last night and were thankfully able to say,
I love you to him before he passed away.
I feel comfort knowing Heaven is where he is at,
and picture him like always, dressed real nice with matching socks and a hat.
Please GOD be with anyone that may be upset,

*because this is a great loss for anyone he has ever met.
Although hopefully it will not be anytime soon I hope that I can,
Be graced by GOD to oneday see Pop again.
We love you Pop and already miss you dearly!##imported-
