“ Rosie and family: even though distance separates us, our thoughts and prayers are with you all- that our Father will comfort you as only He can during this difficult time. Some of my memories of Ms. Irene include her fantastic cooking, her clown collection, and her talent for growing Christmas cacti. Also, I remember her telling me stories of coming to America as a young girl from Germany. My comfort is knowing she is now at peace, with her Lord, and dancing forever with my Daddy, in Heaven. My hope is that beautiful memories will bring you comfort also.

Love in Christ,
Troy and Tamara Hodges

“ Our deepest sympathies to Rosie and her children,. Ritta and Robert. I have some very fun and interesting memories of traveling with Irene and my Daddy to Texas. I think Irene was at her happiest when she was on the dance floor at the Bob Wills festival in Turkey, TX. We spent lots of time shopping, driving around, and just visiting with family. I'll never forget the way she fidgeted her hands on the steering wheel, refusing to let me help her drive no matter how tired she got. Rosie, I sincerely hope you know that she meant a lot to my Daddy and in that respect...she meant a lot to me too. We love you all.
