“ Dear Sweet Jane, Gail, Lynn and Cindy:

My, how long it has been since last we were neighbors, but I have never forgotten any of you. I think of you so often.

I lost Dad and Mom, too, so I know what you are going thru. It isn't easy, but with the love of our Lord and the strength He can give, "we can do all things thru Christ who strengthens us" (Phillip. 4:13). He wanted her to "come Home" and be with Him and that is what all of His children are waiting for - to see Him face to face" - that is our promise from Him and He will fulfill His promises.

I send my heartfelt love and prayers that you will turn to Him in all things.

When you have time and want to talk, just e-mail me. OK?

In His and My Love,

“ Mrs. Stacey was always a wonderful Southern Lady. She was looked up to by all that knew her. My mother, Mrs. Rowe, really cared for her and they were friends. My father rode in a car-pool to SRS with Mr. Stacey and they also became friends. All three are with God now and talking about old times. Please, know that you are in my prayers and thoughts. I know you have special memories of your Mother and the love you shared. They will comfort you beyond measure.###imported-begin###Dolores Rowe Adkins###imported-end###
