“ I was saddened to read about the loss of your loved one. It reminded me of losing my Grandmother a few years ago. There are no words to describe such pain. I know of a brochure that gave me much comfort when I was in pain and I can get you a copy if you wish. It's called "When Someone You Love Dies". Then, maybe you can find some comfort and some answers from the Bible, after all, 2 Cor. 1:3 says in part: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort". If you would like a copy of the brochure, you can email me at tmmillard@yahoo.com and I will mail it to you free of charge.

“ The first time I ever met Grandma Hall, I was so nervous. My then fiancée, Chris, would sing her praises (rightfully so) and talk about what an amazing woman she was. When I met Grandma Hall, my nerves were eased and I was in awe of this kind, sweet, amazing woman. She touched my life in a way that I will never be able to explain. With Grandma Hall, I felt like I had a grandmother again. It never felt like she was just my husbands grandmother, but my grandmother as well. She made me feel honored to marry her first grandson and treated me like I was her own granddaughter. She long wanted Chris to have children and when that time finally came she was thrilled. Unfortunately, Grandma Hall never got a chance to meet William, but I know when she passed on Friday night, she finally got the chance and has been looking over him ever since. I love you Ivy Hall and always will. May you rest in peace with the Lord and with Grandpa.

“ I cherished every moment I was able to spend with my Grandmother, and wish I had been able to spend even more time with her. Grandma Hall was without a doubt one of the most influential people in my life, and I don't know anyone she met whose life she did not touch.

While I am unable to physically be there tonight or tomorrow, I will be praying with and for the rest of my family and I will be there in thought.

But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. For this we say to you by the work of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout with the vice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words.

“ My Aunt to me is the Greatest Person in this world,

one of a kind and one in a million.

She has the biggest heart with the most caring touch,

which she shares with so many of us.

Her soul is made of pure love,

yet she's worth way more than gold.

To me she's the smartest woman I know,

and it truly does show.

There is no one that compares to her,

no one that even comes close.

I appreciate all the advise she has given me,

I take it in with immense gratitude.

The memories I will forever cherish,

for they are priceless.

For all she has done, I will forever be thankful, and my love for her only grows more with each day that passes.

On a high pedistal is where I hold her,

for I admire her so much more than she knows.

*Having her as a part of my life is the greatest gift of all,
being in her presence is god's blessing to me.*

Looking deep inside of her,

I see that Strong, Wise woman I hope to become.

Giving, helpful, loving, caring, and kind is what defines her.

She is not only my favorite Aunt but she is my role model,

and to be like her , would be my only wish.
