“ Hi Jackie & Pat,

Believe it or not I just got this e-mail, it had somehow gotten in a different file and I stumbled upon it today. The video was very moving...Jackie looked like a great guy whose life ended way too soon. I can only imagine how much he is missed by all of you. I know he will always live on in each of you because nothing can take away the love and memories that are yours to keep forever. I am keeping all of you in my thoughts and prayers.

Love, Sheila

“ We are shocked to hear about Jack Jr.'s passing. I am so glad that we got to see him this summer in Myrtle Beach. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. The greatest tragedy on earth is for a parent to have to lose a child. May God wrap his loving arms around you, Uncle Jack and Aunt Pat. Love, Terri

“ Jack was my friend and son-in-law, I will miss him dearly. On any given day if I need a smile I go back in time and remember a day on the beach in San Diego when he demonstrated a trick he could do on a swing. The trick did not go well but the laughter it generated was worth the 'splat' in the sand. If there was a video, it would have won on the 'Funniest Video Show". I can always laugh when I think about that day and his 'trick'. Thanks Jack, you'll be with me until we meet again.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times, the loss can seem unbearable. The Bible teaches: "God is near to those broken at heart." It also says: "Throw your burden upon God himself and he himself will sustain you." (Psalm 34:18 and 55:22) I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.
