“ Ms. Bootsie,
My heart goes out to you for your loss of Mr. Jack. You two had a love that most of us only read about or hope to have. I know this because of the fond way he spoke of you in some of the stories he shared with me when I worked as a secretary there at Curtis.

My prayers go out to you Cindy and David. Knowing you'll see your father again and helps ease the loss some what, but I do know the pain is still real. Please know that you have many prayers lifting you all up.

Mr. Jack was an inspiration, a gentleman, a leader, and a true Christian. I am honored to have known him.

God bless and surround each of you in His own way.

“ Bootsie, I am going to miss Mr. Jack so very much! Remember about a month or so ago, when I told you that I had been thinking about him and how "he's probably one of the sweetest, kindest men I know; that the way he lives his life is a great testimony to me." I am so glad I told you that then. Do you remember what you replied back to me? You told me, "I will tell you, Wanda, that the way you see Jack Coley at church is the way he is at home, at work, no matter where he is." What a testimony of what kind of man Mr. Jack was! My life has been blessed in knowing him. You know you are so special to me, and I love you greatly. I am praying for you, Cindy, David, and the rest of the family. Let me know if there is ANYTHING I can do for you. Love, Wanda Jones##imported-begin##Wanda Jones##imported-end##
