“ His Words Set Me Free

*I've held it in
Not sure why
But I've not been able to cry*

*He left so quick
I didn't have much time
Suddenly, he wasn't mine*

*I wasn't ready
To let him go
So if I cried, it would be so*

*I still had things to do
His wash, His games, His toys
The messy room of a boy*

*But suddenly
As I sat to wait
For him to come home through the garden gate*

*It struck me that he was gone
That he had died
And I began to cry*

*And I saw the angles
They were flying by
With my child in the sky*

*Give him back
I shouted out
But they just flew about*

*I fell to the ground
I challenged the Lord*

Then I begged and read His Word

*How can I live
When my life has just gone
How can I go on?*

*And then I hated
I blamed them all
For my child shouldn't have heard the call*

*While I lay there
In such pain
I heard a voice who called my name*

*"I do not know sadness
And I do not know hate
Most of all, I do not question my fate*

*Stand up Mother
And very tall
I wasn't taken I heard the call!"*

*So I got up
I turned around
And there was no one to be found*

*And so it was time to cry
Cause I heard his voice
And it was also time to rejoice*

*"I wasn't taken I heard the call"
He said to me
And it set me free*

*God Bless You Jake....##imported-begin##A Mourner##imported-

“ My prayers are with all of Jake's family & friends. After many years, I had the pleasure of hanging out with him a couple weeks ago. Jake was a wonderful guy, a living teddy bear. In the few hours I got to spend with him, there was NO DOUBTING the love he had for Izzie! God rest your soul big guy! I'm going to miss you!##imported-begin##Tiffany Nuckols Stone##imported-end##
