“ To Jimmy and family,

Although we are now in England we still keep in touch with Billy Regan who told us the sad news about your Daddy's passing. Billy and I often reminisce with fond memories of the time we both worked for him in the 60's and 70's. So in this, your time of grief we pray that you will also be strengthened with many happy memories.

Jimmy... I know from conversations that you and I have had that you have precious memories of you and your Dad doing things together and I know how you cared for and looked after him. You without question... had a great Dad and you are and were a great son and one of the greatest friends I have ever had. I hope this scripture that is dear to me gives some comfort to you as it's so true of our lives. I pray Christ gives you the strength you need to get through this time that is difficult .

2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.
