“ I remember Jim teasing me almost every Sunday as I entered Holy Trinity church. He always sounded so serious, but I eventually realized he was just teasing me. His dedication to fulfilling his Sunday School secretary responsibilities was a special blessing to all of us. Dee Glander

“ I remember how he made his famous chicken noodle soup for anyone who would stop at the bait and tackle store in front of St Bart’s Episcopal church. It was there I met city police officers, political leaders, and North Augusta people. The soup was peppery and some even added Texas Pete. Jim loved making it from scratch.
Every Sunday before worship Jim would make sure my pastor’s stole was level. He also greeted every person that entered the church.

June I am so very sorry about Jim. I will never be able to say his name without smiling. He was a wonderful man, and I have so many Holy Trinity memories, and kindergarten. He was so good to all of us. And lets not forget the fish stew! Yep, I'm smiling. Sending hugs to you and your whole family.
