“ Jamie was one of the finest men and truest friends I have ever known. These past few difficult month's since my surgery, Jamie has been a beacon and source of strength to me. It seems that whenever I was the lowest, he would call or show up and help me through those times. I will never forget him for his kindness and caring. Of all those that I have known in my 76 years, Jamie ranks near the top of the really good men. I hurt for his being gone and will never forget him. I wished I had called him or seen him more often.

“ Such a sweet Southern gentlemen. ALWAYS the first one to speak and never missed an opportunity to. My family feels so blessed to have had Jaime and Sue in our lives. It's a big loving family at BSCBC and they are a HUGE part of it. It is a comfort to know that all his pain is gone and Jesus welcomed him with those words we all want so badly to hear "well done My good and faithful servant." Jaime was always up to something to help make the church better. The love that he shared with each of us will never be forgotten. Katie, Robin, Todd & Sharon I can assure you we will do our very best to care for your lovely Mother and Sister-in-law. They were a pair and it wasn't very often that we would see one without the other or at least close by. Jaime being in Heaven is going to take quite an adjustment for all, especially Sue. We will be here!!
