

James Kennedy "Jay" Jarrett, Jr.

October 24, 1976 - March 24, 2024

Jackson, SC – Mr. James Kennedy “Jay” Jarrett, Jr., 47, entered into rest March 24, 2024. Funeral Services will be conducted Friday afternoon at 3 o’clock at Cowden Plantation with Rev. Brian Henderson and Rev. Jody Robinson officiating. A private interment will follow in the Cowden Family Cemetery. The family will receive friends prior to the service at Cowden Plantation in the Finn Building from 1 until 3 o’clock.

Jay was born October 24, 1976, to James “Kenny” Jarrett, Sr. and the late Linda Gayle Hartline Jarrett. He was a lifelong resident of Jackson, SC, and a graduate of Silver Bluff High School. Throughout his life Jay attended Matlock Baptist Church, First Baptist Church of Jackson, and most recently was involved in the Cowden Fellowship. Jay followed in his father’s footsteps as a craftsman and co-owner of Jarrett Rifles but he was truly a farmer at heart. He had a strong work ethic and never minded getting his hands dirty. Jay managed and operated Cowden Plantation Farms, LLC and as an avid outdoorsman, he loved helping others experience nature and the sport of hunting. He enjoyed facilitating and hosting special hunts at Cowden Plantation for law enforcement, veterans, and children. Witnessing the thrill of hunters, especially children, when they harvest their first animal brought him immense joy. Jay was a selfless servant and had a heart of gold, always seeking an opportunity to help those in need. He was known as a jokester and will be fondly remembered for his sense of humor and his ability to bring a smile to everyone he met. Jay's greatest joy in life was his family. He was proud of his sons and always celebrated their accomplishments.

In addition to his mother, Jay was preceded in death by his sister, Rissa Nicole Jarrett; his grandparents, Henry and Anne Hartline, Mary Amelia Smith, James Cook Jarrett, and Jerrell M. Brown; and an uncle, Charles Hartline.

Pallbearers will be Tom Galardi, Philip Jhant , Ryght Jordan, Scott Mitchell, Andy Muns, Gerry Saggus, Adam Sullivan, Dan Sullivan

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Hampton Wildlife Fund, PO
Box 2641
Columbia, SC 29202 or visit hamptonwildlifefund.org. Memorials made In Memory of
Jay Jarrett will support special hunts in South Carolina.

“ Heartbroken to have both Rissa and Jay gone too soon. I well remember the day Jay was born and how excited our family was to welcome him home. Although time passes, he is still my little cousin and always in my heart. The blessing is he is now home with Aunt Linda and Rissa. James, John and Julie, lifting you all up in God's comfort and care -- prayers, hugs and love
