“ It’s very hard to put into words the lifelong memories of such a good natured man with a caring heart who never met a stranger. I will always treasure all the many precious moments I was allowed to spend growing up as a part of your family being treated as another one of your girls whether here at home or on the road for yet another big adventure. Those times were an amazingly awesome part of my life I wouldn’t ever want to change. Thank God for you Mr Jim & my Daddy being fraternity brothers during college in KY then somehow ending up here in SC as neighbors both with little girls who grew up together knowing each other as sisters. Oh what a wonderful time y’all must be having together again in the glory of heaven above! Joanna, Sonny, Brandon, Casey along with Patricia & her family my heart goes out to all of y’all as this is such a difficult journey now for everyone has lost a very special part of their life. May God’s Peace Love Mercy & Grace surround all of you providing comfort & blessings only He can give! Much Love to everyone 🙏💕
👮 As only Mr Jim could say “Leaher” is here for y’all if you need anything at all please call me..... 💔😞
