“ Milton, I will never forget a ride home with all of us from school!! I was so sick, and laughing and being sick was really hard!! Wade, you know!! I believe I was being taught a lesson that day!! I have not seen you in so many years but our younger years will live on in my memories forever! I have only good memories of you, and your family. Christie, I am so sorry! I pray for your entire family now Milton, but I know you are at peace, God is great, and I will see you there one day my friend!

“ Tell Aunt Shirley hello for us, until we all make it home together. I can't help but hope there is a big field waiting on us all to grab a football and softball and get to playing again.

“ We mourn the loss of your life here on earth, but praise God for His promise of No more pain! You are now resting in the arms of your Savior....safe, complete and healed. I can't help but picture your sweet momma waiting at heaven's gate, arms wide open welcoming you home. God's grace and comfort for the family and friends left here on earth...until we meet again. Hugs and much love to you Christie!
