“ I will always remember spending time with my Papa. I loved feeding the animals with him, clearing the electric fence, and watching the Braves games. He was the one of the kindest people I’ve ever known and he will be missed.

“ Montine, Jimmy and family. I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Jim and knew him and June outside of work. He always was kind and had a smile for everyone. He was a good Christian and showed it. May God bring you peace, comfort you and strengthen you during these times in your lives.
