“ Jay was a good family man, and very much enjoyed coaching baseball like I did with my son, for we worked together for a short time at the chemical plant where I worked at, for Jay would give you the shirt off of his back, and never really complained about anything, for a lot of people, and baseball kids he coached will miss him-----Jack Furman.

“ Jay and I grew up in the same neighborhood. Debbie, his late wife, was also a good friend of our family. My sisters, Brenda and Nancy, and I used to hang out as teenagers. My Mom and Dad thought the world of Jay and Debbie. Jay will truly be missed.
