“ No two people were more warm & welcoming than Stephen & Jane Brown. They were so unassuming, gentle and caring, and I am sure the rest of you are as shocked as I am at her passing, however, she was so Heavenly minded and saintly of heart, that I am sure she has Heaven tied to her apron strings, just as she did us little & big kids. You always made me feel special, dear Jane. See you later, Sweetheart!! Your devoted friend, Jeanne!

“ Jane, you were a beautiful friend - inside and out! You had the biggest heart for serving others. You knew the love of God and had been changed by it and you wanted that for everyone else. You loved so well and served so well. When asked about details you were only concerned that everyone had a seat at the table - which you were always willing to give up your seat so someone else could sit. Your crown in Heaven is probably one of the most beautiful ones ever given... I can hear our Savior say to you, "Well done, sweet daughter, you good and faithful servant". I can not believe you are no longer with us - but girlfriend! I can not wait to stand by your side again one day and worship with you again!
