“ Growing up with you as a grandmother has always been memorable. The dinners you cooked were always beautiful. When I think of you I remember winterfresh gum and peeling corn. I would hang out in your room and smell the hundreds of perfume samples you had on you wall. Somehow everyone smelled the same.. You always corrected me when I would say something wrong and gave me credit when I would say something positive. When I was young this was frustrating because I felt inferior but. now I see it was because you cared. The last time I saw you, was the first time I can say you truly looked happy. Though God allowed your memory to fade, He gave you a new happy heart in exchange. He truly is perfect. Thank you for making my childhood special grandma.

“ I remember, as a young girl, we would go to their house in North Versailles and she always had a smile on her face. She would treat us in her kind and gentle way. Even,, as an adult , my husband, my mother, and myself she would greet us with her smile open arms, and love. Our family will truly miss her. Now, the Lord greeted her with open arms into the gates of heaven. We love u Aunt Jane. RIP

“ Jane and Reg were such wonderful neighbors for 10 years until Doug and I moved. I will never forget Jane coming to my rescue when my house caught on fire. I was working a 24 hr shift and my 2 German Shepherds were inside. The firefighters were scared to death to go inside because of the dogs. Here comes Jane, walking past all these big firefighters and went inside to let the dogs out back.

I fondly remember sitting on their front porch with Jane as Reg filled us in on all the gossip of the neighborhood.

I honestly believe Jane fed every cat in our neighborhood, which of course drove our dogs crazy, but Jane just laughed and talked to the dogs too.

My husband and I were very honored to have both Reg and Jane attend our wedding even though they had to drive all the way to Charleston to do it.

Jane was a wonderful and comforting part of our lives for many years, she will be deeply missed.
