“ How do you describe a lifetime of wonderful memories; memories that were created by a wonderful Aunt who encouraged me to be a good person; who encouraged me not to fear the world i lived in; who pushed an prodded me to take that next step and who loved an surrounded me with unconditional love always.....any time i was afraid or unsure, she was there; any time i needed guidance, she was there, and anytime i just needed to be near her with no words spoken, she was there.....she included me in her life always an for everything, simple or small, i belonged....the fun an excitement that surrounded her was phenomenal, she was a true force of nature....when i think back on my life i know i could not have made it without her wonderful spirit and her wonderful love....i will always be grateful i had her in my life for she made it better and i know she will be waiting on me in heaven with open arms...thank you my beloved Aunt Jane, Love, Gig

“Mimi was a very special lady. I will never forget her speaking into my life one day when I was with her and Marilee. She spoke through a message in tongues and interpretations speaking the word to me. You all were blessed indeed. Prayers for the entire family. Now they are rejoicing with Jesus.” Luv to all. “A memory of me and my grandma Jane it was Christmas and she would always buy me and my sisters the coolest dolls for Christmas every year for a while. I love those dolls. And I loved it when I got to see her. I only wish that she had more time with her loved ones.

I will forever be grateful to Jane for asking us to go to a square dance class. Because of her my husband and I enjoyed many years of dancing. I'll see Jane in heaven. Mary Hansen
