“ I have been blessed with so many wonderful memories of my friendship with Jan,, her boys and Allan. We shared laughter and tears thru many years. She would always pray with me when I needed support. I will miss our talks and try to be as strong in my faith as Jan was. She truly was a gift from God in my life.

“ Our Mom was the best example of a Godly mother and grandmother one could ever ask for. She touched so many lives with her sweet spirit, listening ear and encouraging words. Even when you were ministering to her, she would turn it around on you and minister to you. She was a prayer warrior for all. She was a true friend. She did not simply know your name, she knew all about you and your family. We loved you with all our hearts and will miss you so very much! We look forward to seeing you again some day in heaven!

“ Allan,
I know your heart is heavy over the loss of Jan. But you know our God is stronger, our God is greater, our God is higher than any other and will sustain your sorrow and lift you up. Jan was a great person of faith and encourager to all who knew her. She is singing with the angels in heaven now in that great choir we will join one day. We love you and pray God's blessing and peace during this time.

“ Today I am returning your body to the community you were raised in, loved and where you surrendered your life to Jesus. I will always be grateful for the life we shared and the Savior we served. In know when you left this world you were freed of the pain and sickness that shackled your body. You are finally home with Jesus surrounded by loved ones that went before us. I can't imagine all the sites you are seeing and the excitement in your heart as you bow before our Savior! I was proud and honored to share our journey together as husband and wife, but 33 years went by too fast. I will miss you terribly, but knowing I will meet you again in heaven gives me great comfort. You have left an incredible legacy for our family to follow for Jesus. I love you!

I'll miss you and will see you soon.

“ Sweet sweet special Lady, So glad You are no longer suffering. Wish I could have seen the reunion in Heaven when You got there!! There was always physically many miles between Us but in Our hearts we were close. I cherish every memory I have of Our times together. I remember writing to You and asking if You would mind if We named Our Joey after Your Joey~of course You were thrilled. I remember You bringing Allan to meet Us All~God sure sent You a special blessing in Him. Peanut butter and banana sandwiches, picking strawberries, and going to DC when You were in PA. 11 yrs ago when We visited You made Me promise to find a Dr. to help Me, You didn't want me suffering like You had. (I did) I could go on and on but the best of all is the Love You had for God and everyone!!! You and Your beautiful smile (no matter how bad You felt) is going to be missed by All who have every known You. Allan, David, Eddie, Joey and Families treasure Your memories. Rejoice in the fact that She is home and well and waiting for Us All!!! Keeping You All in My prayers and thoughts. My Love to You All!!!

“ I always knew when I saw Jan I would see a sweet smile. Many times I would look out from the choir searching for that sweet face. You cannot have that smile and joy on your face without that joy and love in your heart. Not only a joy for others but the joy of the Lord. Now as she rejoices before her Lord we will all take comfort in knowing she is in a new body and with Him forever. Allan you are in our hearts and prayers. Love, Nancy Gaffney

“ This is Jan's second morning in Heaven and she is alive and well like never before. By now, she's about to burst with all she has seen and has to tell us. She was always praying for us and now she is interceding for us in the throne room. We couldn't have a better advocate. I will always think of her when I see or hear the verse: 1 Peter 3:15: "But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:"

“ My sweet Mom-mom,
I have told u many times that you were my heart, so right now, my heart is empty and broken without you. But, the GOD of all comfort brings me such amazing joy and peace as I know you are free of pain and in the arms of the One you have served and loved and worshipped and have brought many people to know throughout your life.
I am honored and undeserving to have had you as my Mommom. I praise The Lord for every memory we have shared together all they way up to your last breath.
I look forward to being with you one day in glory!
Your loving Granddaughter,
Kelly

We have very fond memories of her and her sweet smiling face. We know this is going to be a rough path for you, Allan, and for your children and their families. Please know that you are being prayed for up here in NC. Much love...Chris and Tiffany Griggs

“ Jan was a beautiful lady, not only on the outside but on the inside, too! Her smile, which she always greeted you with, radiated her love for her Lord! Gentle, kind, sweet spirited are just a few of the words to describe Jan! She was a good listener, as well! I remember one time at Wal-Mart Jan took the time to talk to me about a concern of mine! We talked about her family, too! At church once she took time to offer advice about some back pain I was having! I always loved seeing her there, because her smile made my day! Anyone who did not know her, missed out on knowing one of the most precious ladies ever! She will be remembered forever in the hearts of those who knew and loved her!
