“ God has picked another ripened fruit from his garden. Jeannie you were like a sister to me, as well a second Mom to my Daughter. May God be with all who Loved you. I am sure Jesus will love your chicken and dumplings They was the best. I wish Heaven had visiting hours. But we all know that life is a journey we sometimes take for granted. You will be missed by many. But you always be in our hearts. See you when my number comes up.
Rest In Peace

“ I worked with Jeannie for several years, we became good friends. We used to talk about everything, some things we laughed about and some things we cried about. I can say she was truly a caring person. Jeannie, I will miss you, but until we meet again, Rest in Peace.
