Jeromy was a life-long resident of North Augusta. He was a 1995 graduate of North Augusta High School and earned a bachelor's degree from the University of South Carolina with honors. Jeromy worked for McJunkin Red Man Corporation for 22 years, most recently serving as branch manager. He was a loving husband, father, son and brother who was dedicated and devoted to his family. In recent years, Jeromy's passion was helping his son Luke develop a love for the game of golf. Jeromy enjoyed playing golf, flipping houses with wife Candace and spending time with his parents as they worked on many home improvement projects together. He will be greatly missed by all who loved him and will continue to live in our hearts forever.
