“ Jerry was one of the kindest men I've ever known. Always enjoyed talking with him when I got the chance. Seemed he was always smiling. There's no doubt in my mind that God brought Jerry and Jackie together. They were perfect for one another. He treated my niece, her kids and grandkids as his own, and they were. He became part of our family and we appreciated him. Jerry, we'll miss you. I bet when you came into Heaven, you were met by our Lord, your family, and my mother. She always cared so much about you. We'll see you one day.

“ Very sorry for the family and friends of Jerry. He was a loving and kind man and he fought valiantly against the thief of life known as cancer. For anyone that knows God, we know that Jerry is now happy, pain free, and celebrating the best celebration we Christian's have ever heard of or read. Our imaginations cannot get close to the joy Jerry is experiencing and while we are happy for his homecoming, we are saddened to have lost such a good man on an earth that is sorely lacking good men in these last days. If you want to know of a joy such as his, just get to know Jesus and all your troubles can be cast upon Him. I have known his wonderful wife for more than 50 years and I can tell you that she loved Jerry and he loved her. Jackie, you know the love of God will comfort and keep you during this difficult time. He has given you many people to love on you and hold you close when you need it most. Call on us and we will lift you up when you need it and hold you up when you feel like you can't do it yourself. I am here for you... Praying for comfort and keeping you lifted up in prayer my friend. Love, Wendy Ray
