

Jerry Wayne Brown

January 19, 1947 - June 25, 2006

North Augusta, SC—Entered into rest on June 25, 2006, at his residence, Mr. Jerry Wayne Brown was the son of the late Mr. Robert Fulton Brow and the late Mrs. Marion Creed Brown of North Augusta. He was briefly employed by the Augusta Chronical before beginning a 20 year career with first E.I. DuPont Company and later Westinghouse at the Savannah River Site. Disability forced him to retire in 1999 and begin a six year battle with a brain tumor. In retirement, he was able to pursue his avocation for writing and traveling. He was a published poet and award winning black-and-white photographer.

In 2005 Mr. Brown was honored by the late John F. Kennedy President Library in Boston as the guest of Ed and Caroline Kennedy Schlossberg.

Survivors include one sister, Evelyn Wilkins-Stone of Martinez, Georgia, his companion and friend, Jason W. Burton of North Augusta, a very special friend, Myra Pettis of Martinez, Georgia and a number of special nieces, nephew, aunts and cousins.

“ Our hearts are saddened by the loss of our friend, Jerry. In the short time we knew him, it was obvious that he was a very special person. Our hearts are broken that we will not have a chance to know him as well as his closest friends and family. We will miss him, but will always remember him.###imported-begin###Frances & Jimmie McKenzie###imported-end###
