J.C. was a wonderful Christian man. I always enjoyed encountering him. I will never forget how encouraging to me he was when I was teaching the Victory Sunday School class. All my sympathy to Fran and the entire McCormick family.

Oh my dear Fran, I was so sorry to learn of Jesse's passing. Having lost Jim so recently, I hurt for you too. This is so hard to bear, but one of my first thoughts was of Jesse and John's reunion after all these years...and that brought a smile to my face. My love and sympathy to you and all your family.
