“ I remember I met gabby in middle school. She opened her heart up and was the sweetest person in the world! There was one time she took the clothes off her back and made sure everyone was taken care of. She loved everybody. She was so kind hearted, and so genuine. She had the biggest heart of gold! Rest easy sweet girl! You will be missed ❤️

“ When I was nothing but an outcast at school, Gabby was there. She didn't know me super well, but that didn't matter to her. She was there, and always trying to make people feel better. I saw it every day, from middle school to high school. We didn't get to stay in touch, but it doesn't take a best friend of hers to know that she was an amazing young woman. Loving, caring, kind, open, and accepting. Anyone close with her was surely a lucky person. Rest easy, friend. You'll always be remembered and loved. 💜

“ I don't have a specific memory to share, but back in high school I got the privilege of being able to call Gabby my good friend. I remember every time she came around smiles and laughter followed. Her goofy and friendly personality always made her an easy person to be around. While there are many things I admired about Gabby, the one I will surely miss most of all was her ability to hug in a way that genuinely expresses the amount of care she holds in her heart for people. I miss you Gabs, and my thoughts and prayers go out to all of her family and friends.

“ There are no words really. I love and miss you all. And I'm sending so many prayers. If I had to share one memory, I'll never forget me and Cara talking while hanging out with the kids, and we started talking about how much Gabby loved to talk. What a huge sunshine personality. And I remember Cara saying she got the right name by being called Gabby since she loves to Gab, haha. For some reason, that stuck out to me. Maybe because now I have a very talkative kiddo myself! Michael always spoke of how smart and bright Gabby seemed to be when we were all hanging out. I hate that so much time has passed since me and Michael were married, Cara and Joey were married, and since I took Chloe's prom pictures that we haven't seen each other. But we have so many cherished memories together in the past and I'll never forget those. I'll continue to pray. Love you guys. - Kimmy, Michael, and Nolan
