“ I always have fond memories of Mr. Bowen. He was always more than willing to find time to meet with me as a young medical supplies rep to help me learn the business and understand how to be a better sales rep. He was a kind and gentle man always willing to help and share his vast knowledge of the business to help others. He will always be remembered.

“ I remember the fun times Randy and I had at Clark Hill with Mike and Cathy "Cat" at Uncle Jimmy's lake home. So much fun and laughter as was always the case with Mike. And the four of us riding in his jet boat, cooking hamburgers, fishing and enjoying each others company. Those were the good old days!

*Rest in peace Mike,
