“ We were very sad to get the news about Aunt Jo . Also sorry we can't attend services due to other commitments. Sho was one of a kind no doubt . I can hear her speak the words " OH BROTHER " in my mind today . She will always have a special place in our lives . Some of the BEST days of my life was the weekends spent @ 1127 Carolina Avenue. That was when life was simple , Family hold onto the memories that will last a lifetime and that will help get through the days ahead . I am praying for all of you and OUR LORD AND SAVIOR will walk with you at all times . We LOVE all of you . Shawn and Wendy .

“ Joanne (JoJo) was the best neighbor I could ever ask for. We grew close after our son was born. She kept the back door unlocked for his visits, and snacks for him to eat.....poor Jim was sent to the store on many occasions because she was out of ice cream for Blake. Some of Blake's proudest moments were beating JoJo at poker, which she taught him to play. Many evenings consisted of cards, wheel of fortune and some jeopardy. Jo was a strong and stubborn woman, which is probably why we got along so good. She loved her family and those close to her. She will be dearly missed. Praying for her family during this time.
