“ This is such a pretty picture of Mama Jo. She was one of the most beautiful women I have ever laid eyes on. She was always so sweet and mild mannered and I will always remember how much she loved her animals. She was also a loving grandmother to both of my girls Marina, and Natalie. I must add that she was so very talented and I remember quite vividly a blue suit that she made for herself- she was extremely creative. She will be missed.

I know Papa Jack is happy to have the love of his life with him.

“ Miss Jo was a lovely lady ,inside and out. Since I was a little girl on Karnes St., she always made me feel special and loved. I will miss her very much. I hope knowing she and Mr. Jack are together again gives some comfort to Matt and Steve and all the family. My thoughts and prayers are with you in the days ahead.
