“ I have just learned of Mrs Folger's death, and am so sorry! I remember her and Bob's visit to me in France back in the 80s, I showed them Paris. Also, before my father went to Seminary in 63, she had us to dinner and I discovered the violin which Rob played. Many good memories of these friends from Fairview Presbyterian. Love to all.

“ Hello Beth,

Know that your PEO sisters in Summerville are keeping you in their prayers and sending you their love. So sorry about your mother's passing and the fact that you are not near for us to pour out our love to you. I know you that God will keep you in His care and provide you with wonderful memories of your mother.

*Love,

“ It was truly a privilege to know Joanne. She and Bob were among the first to welcome my sister and I to the church and into their home. She was one of the kindest and most Godly women I have known. I am so sad that she is gone but at the same time I am so happy because I know she is with her God and Savior whom she loves and served so faithfully. My condolences to Bob and the family. She will be sorely missed by all who knew her. Ann Lipscomb
