“ I didn't know Mr. Cone well in life experience, but I knew him well through his daughter Sherrie and her family. There is no better tribute to life than the one you write yourself through your actions. His was a life well lived and a heart well used. Our loss here is heaven's gain.

My thoughts and prayers are with his loved ones. May God comfort and heal until everyone is together again.

*Sincerely,

Maggie and I were just talking about a trip to Augusta and stopping by N. Augusta to see Joe and Norma, but waited to late. I'm really sorry for your great lost, Norma. We love you and family. You all have always been special to us. We remember the wonderful times at Dallas Heights Church where Herman gave his heart to the Lord. Joe was in charge of something, maybe SS, just can't remember. Those were special times down at the camp, etc. Will be praying for you!, Love, Herman and Margaret (Maggie) Phillips. (Tim Thompson called me and gave me the news).
