“ Joel will be missed by all who knew him. It was a blessing to be one of those . We spent many good times at my home range wasting 22's . Thanks for your friendship . The ole man next door to Derek Bobby Lewis

“ Joel was a good friend. We met years ago in Washington, D.C. while working for the F.B.I. He roomed with three other guys - Larry Lawhon, Ron Register and Bob Shafer. Bob is no longer with us. Larry and his wife live in North Carolina, I notified Larry and he will let Ron Know.

Joel was a kind soft spoken man and I visited him and his family when I made my move from D.C to Sebring, Fl. I will be keeping your family in my prayers. You have many good memories and they will give you comfort in the days to come.I

Loved Joel's Mother, Lila and all his family and really loved how he took care of Lila. He always said he enjoyed cooking with his Mother.

Love and Blessings,

“ I was fortunate enough to meet Joel several times over the years, mostly at Derek and Kim's great parties. They threw a wonderful birthday party for Joel!

I always found him to be a soft-spoken man, one who always had a smile and kind word for everyone. He was a kind and thoughtful person, very generous of spirit. This is a deep loss. My thoughts for peace and healing go out to his family.
