“ I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember him. I grew up across the street from Debbie and Larry. He was always so sweet, funny and I loved being around him. I remember him always having paint on him. Such a good man. I have many great memories with this family. I pray God will give you sweet peace and comfort during this difficult time. Love to you all...

Debbie, I am so sorry to learn of your dad's passing. I saw on Stephanie's Facebook site that her grandfather died but somehow didn't connect that it was your father until yesterday. I'm sorry I didn't realize sooner so I could have attended his service; I would have been there had I known. God bless you. I never met him, but from the pictures posted here and the words of others about him, I know that he will be deeply missed. Love, Joy
